Bio/Introduction for Keith Hawkins

Keith Hawkins is a national youth speaker and leadership consultant who addresses over 400,000 students, educators, business owners, and parents every year. Keith has addressed the United Nations global Summit, he has been interviewed by Time Magazine, is featured in a national communication book called Between One and Many, and co-authored the books entitled, Teen Power and Beyond and Go M.A.D.

Keith has dedicated his life and work to improving the human race by helping them strive for personal change in their lives. He focuses on four key beliefs:

- Relationships
- Empowerment
- Attitude
- Leadership

Keith and the Real Inspiration Inc. has a mission to H.E.L.P (Honor, Empower, Lead and Protect) students by offering a customized speech to give students the tools to find purpose in everything they do and find value in who they are!

He speaks with conviction, purpose, and passion to inspire his audience to be better people, to be the change they so desire, and to learn, grow, and thrive in life. He is more than motivational; he is a performer, entertainer, and professional speaker that inspires his audiences to create change for themselves and their education.
